PROHIBITION AND NEAR BEER.

The state of Georgia seems to be getting no pay well what its products bring. As much beer and that sort of stuff will in Georgia as there ever was. The state last year got a revenue of $250,000 from near-beer sales. The city of Birmingham gets $100 a month from each saloon and lets it go at that.

The state officials will introduce a bill at the next legislature to appoint a number of near-beer tax collectors. The complaint is made that an number of people are selling near-beer without paying a license.
It is hoped to get $500,000 when the tax collectors get into action.

Everybody in Georgia seems to be very well satisfied with the prohibition law. The drinkers get all the beer they desire. The state gets as much revenue as it ever did. The prohibitionists have the law.

Things are not quite so satisfactory in Alabama. Bootleggers and blind-tiger-keepers are insisting upon more privileges. They have already become a factor in politics. Several riots have taken place in Montgomery, and Governor Conner has called the legislature in session to pass a search and seizure bill and several other bills that will make the prohibition statute more effective.—

WHAT THE EDITOR CANNOT DO.

Don't think because the reporter sees you getting on the train that he ought to know who you are and where you are going, or if he sees you greet some friends that he knows who they are and where they are from. We aim to get all the news, but you may be the one we don't happen to know. We try to become familiar with names and faces if we possibly can, but during the years past we have been so sharp and failed to see you there, we have lost on the street, we've never risked our reputation on back streets on a dark night, but you weren't all there. And well be bound if we know where to find you all. So if you are going or coming, or know anybody cutting up queer express-let us know.

With the revolting murder of Elsie Siegel in New York by a Chinaman, whom it is alleged she befriended as a missionary, there goes up from a part of the press of the country a scathing denunciation of missionary work among the "heathen." Hump a moment. If because there is an evil done in the church, is the church an institution to be condemned?
Because of the unfortunate murder of a young missionary in the efforts to civilize and make better the the-restful, wrong? We think not.

In Tulsa, with its new commission form of government, the board of commissioners are referred to locally as the "Money Spenders," says the Muskogee Times-Democrat. Well, bet dollars to doughnuts that they make a town of Tulsa where the "tightwads" wouldn't even leave as impression.

An example of the colossal nerve and monumental gall of some office holders, Virgil Biggers, former prosecuting attorney of Pottawatomie county and self-confessed boodler, is entitled to the championship. Biggers is actually fighting to retain his office.

A justice of the peace at Hanna,

A machine has been invented that will photograph sound. Won't it be interesting to see how the talk of the "knocker" looks?

A man Admire has lived a week with his wife, placed with two boys here. There are some men who would not do such a thing. What other would you passengers who are often so easily being passed by a hotel.

LABOR MASS MEETING

In view of the fact that the Armenian Club has organized an organization of the workingmen of the mines of this state, in a great number of instances, in a great number of instances, we demand a regular and honest pay, more thoughtful concern for each other and more to assure a mass meeting of the workers of the state to be held to be held in Labor Hall, Monday morning at 9 o'clock. When the matter will be thoroughly discussed.

We are anxious that every work-
take part in discussions, etc., for the satisfaction of all expressed. We may better arrive at the way of all.
